Computer security video on Lab TV

A 19-minute video, "Information Security — Protecting Our Major Asset," will be broadcast next week on Lab TV channel 3.

The video will be shown at noon, 2 p.m., 8 p.m. and 4 a.m. on April 5–7.

In the video, a variety of speakers from all over the United States share their perspectives about computer security. The video addresses the question, "How much security is enough?"

Because the video is copyrighted, employees are asked not to make a copy of the program when it airs. Televisions are available in many Lab buildings, including the cafeterias.

Computer Security, which is sponsoring the broadcast, encourages all employees to tune in. For further information contact Computer Security, at 2-4655.

Badge check post to close Monday

The badge check post just north of the West Cafeteria will be closed permanently after today.

Access to the West Cafeteria and the "A" parking lots will be through the west gate at Bldg. 122, according to Wayne Davis of the Protective Force Division.

The post is being shut down construction is complete, a new access point will be established.

Additional information will be available as the project progresses, Davis said.

Defense Nuclear Agency director visits

USAF Maj. Gen. Kenneth L. Hagemann, director of the Defense Nuclear Agency, concluded his two-day visit to the Lab this week with a meeting with Director Emeritus Edward Teller. Hagemann met with Lab officials to discuss the National Ignition Facility and nonproliferation issues.

Forum to focus on assuring software quality on a budget

A forum addressing how software quality assurance requirements can be met in a time of declining budgets, or "SQA on $5 a Day," will be held at the Lab on April 18–20.

Targeted mostly to software developers, software project managers, and design and development by representatives from 11 Department of Energy weapons sites.

Participating laboratories and plants include Los Alamos, Rocky Flats, Pinellas, Pantex, Mound, Oak Ridge, Savannah River, Sandia, Kansas City, Hanford and Livermore. The forum is sponsored by the Software Quality Assurance Subcommittee within the Nuclear Weapons Complex, which is chartered to address common issues that span the various sites.

The 2-1/2-day forum begins at 8:30 a.m. each day in the MFE Auditorium and will include ses- ing of software professionals.

The $25 cost includes purchase of proceedings, refreshments and lunch. Lab employees can register through cost-transfers. For further information or registration material, contact Jan Reehl at 2-8445.

Dear Dr. Teller:

Dr. George Ullrich and I want to express our appreciation for your visit to the Defense Nuclear Agency (DNA) on the 18th of March 1993. We enjoyed particularly the discussions at lunch; your wit and charm were refreshing and your grasp of technical and political issues instructive. Your afternoon talk was superb! It had just the right mix of humor, anecdote, and technical detail for the DNA audience. It was interesting and thought provoking. We were especially impressed with the ease and tact you demonstrated in handling the question and answer session. Thanks, too, for taking the time to meet one-on-one with several of our program managers. They will always cherish their memories of that occasion and already proudly display their photos commemorating your visit.

I have attached a VCR cassette with a record of your talk along with some of the photographs that were taken. I hope you will enjoy them.

On a more personal note, let me express my gratitude for your encouragement to me and the example you set for all of us. Thank you.

Best wishes,

KENNETH L. HAGEMANN
Major General, USAF
Director
